

SmartRecruiters selected as finalist in Online Recruitment Industry Awards

SAN FRANCISCO, CA - We are delighted to announce that SmartRecruiters has been shortlisted for The Best Newcomer Award at this year's Online Recruitment Industry Awards!

About the OnRec Awards

The fifth annual OnRec Awards celebrate the success, growth, innovation, talent and achievements within the Online Recruitment Industry across various categories, such as Technical Innovation, Education, Best Corporate Use of Online Recruitment, Best Recruitment Agency, and others. The OnRec Awards represent the industry's only independently judged Awards. Final participants have been selected by a judging panel and winners will be announced at the Awards' Dinner, which will take place on March 25th 2009 in Park Lane, London, United Kingdom.

SmartRecruiters' nomination for the The Best Newcomer Award comes in recognition to the great interest and success that it has generated as the industry's first 100% Free Applicant Tracking System. SmartRecruiters has pioneered a new SaaS model (called OpenSaaS) and has championed the cause of offering free and easy recruiting technology for small and medium sized businesses (SMBs). The overwhelmingly positive reception that SmartRecruiter has received is a testament to its impact on the recruiting industry. In what is little over 3 months since its official launch, SmartRecruiters has now become the fastest growing ATS on the market with more than 350 SMBs signing up to use it.
